

ster's ability to clutch foul flies also swelled his put-out total.

Ainsmith of Washington caught only 77 games, but had 418 put-outs. Eddie is Walter Johnson's battery partner, which accounts for the comparatively large total.

As a team the Sox fielded .961, being tied with the Boston Red Sox for fourth place. The Mackmen headed the list, with a mark of .966.

Following are the leaders in each position, with the percentage of the Sox players:

